Comments

Aquatic Recreation (AQUA) continues to see increased interest in Semi-Private lessons over Group Lessons.

Conejo Community Center (CCC) held seven fewer soccer classes, with enrollment declining by 55 participants. In addition, one fewer Parents Night Out event was held (-30) and no Back-to-School Night Childcare event (-31).

Dos Vientos Community Center (DVC) held 31 more classes than last year across a wide variety of categories. The Outdoor Core Strength & Stretch classes gained 57 participants, new Line Dancing classes brought in 63 participants, and successful Parents Night Out programs saw over 100 enrollments compared to just 53 last year.

Goebel Adult Community Center (GACC) gained 125 participants in its Live Performance events across the same number of events. Holiday and themed parties gained another 71 participants.

Hillcrest Center for the Arts (HCFA) had 180 fewer participants in the Elementary Music Program than last year.

Outdoor Recreation offered Community Campfire, which accounted for 47 enrollments, while hiking programs gained 27 participants. These increases were partially offset by 19 fewer enrollments from McCrea Movie Night.

The cancellation of the McCrea Ranch Family Fall Round Up event led to Thousand Oaks Community Center (TOC) having notably fewer enrollments than last year (the event had 143 enrollments in 2025).

Thousand Oaks Teen Center (TEEN) had a significant increase in enrollment for homeschool classes. An independent contractor teaching science classes had 110 more enrollments this year compared to last year.
