Recreation Division Highlights

Thursday, December 3, 2026

Borchard, Dos Vientos, Thousand Oaks & Conejo Community Centers

Festival De Los Muertos

The 4th annual Festival De Los Muertos had well over 1000 people in attendance. This collaborative event between the four community centers features a large Ofrenda in the front of the park as well as 9 additional Ofrendas from parter agencies and groups inside the gym, crafts, games, sponsor booths food trucks and live music and dance performances on stage.

Conejo, Borchard, & Thousand Oaks Community Centers

Safe Passage on Ice

35 kids got the opportunity to go ice skating and get a lesson from Iceoplex skate staff. Along with ice skating, the kids enjoyed crafts, board games, pizza, and more!

Borchard Community Center

Gobbling the night away

The Borchard Preschool program had their Family Thanksgiving Potluck Feast. 14 preschool kids and their families played basketball, cornhole, hula hoops, delivered a fantastic performance on stage, and had a potluck brunch.

Thousand Oaks Teen Center

Nothing But Net

8 teams of Student-athletes from alternative high schools throughout the county brought their skills to the semiannual 3-on-3 basketball tournament. Participants capped off the day with a BBQ celebration, strengthening connections both on and off the court.

Hillcrest Center for the Arts

Guy's and Dahl's

YAE's fall production of Roald Dahl's "Matilda Jr." which ran for three weeks with huge houses including four sold-out shows. YAE & HCFA will host a fundraiser "Holiday Karaoke" event on December 5th with prizes, ugly holiday sweaters and holiday jammies are encouraged.

