B. PAST & UPCOMING PROGRAM REPORT

1. Past Program Report

- i. Cinco de Mayo Fiesta- Friday, May 2, 2025: 140 seniors enjoyed both a Nacho Bar and Taco Bar for dinner, along with made-to-order, handmade churros & ice cream for dessert. The live band performance by Pier 101 was enjoyed by all. Seniors danced and had fun with props in the photo booth area. The event was sold out and everyone had a great time!
- ii. Rotation Station with Allison Lange- Wednesdays, May 7-21: Five seniors participated in three exercise sessions with Allison Lange, a fitness instructor from The Reserve of Thousand Oaks, on the back patio of the Goebel Adult Center. They learned how to utilize the six outdoor exercise machines designed for bodyweight movements. By becoming acquainted with the equipment, the seniors are now empowered to return on their own anytime they wish to work out.
- iii. Mother's Day Tea Party- Friday, May 9, 2025: 60 seniors enjoyed the annual GACC Mother's Day Tea Party. The first course consisted of Cherry Scones with Clotted Cream & Lingonberry Jam. The second course included egg salad, chicken salad, and cucumber & cream cheese tiny tea sandwiches. The third course included a variety of desserts including various macarons, lemon bars, and a flower-shaped chocolate mousse cake all in celebration of Mother's Day. A variety of tea flavors were served and everyone enjoyed chatting and socializing with their friends.

2. Upcoming Program Report

- i. Dodger Game Day Watch-Party- Thursday, June 5, 1:10pm: Seniors aged 50+ are invited to join us to cheer on the Dodgers as they battle the New York Mets. Seniors can watch the game while enjoying all-you-can-eat dodger dogs, hamburgers, fries, popcorn, peanuts, cracker jacks & more. Tickets are available for purchase at the front desk and are $15 per person.
- ii. Summer BBQ- Friday, June 13, 5:00-7:00pm: The GACC will be celebrating the beginning of Summer with a Hot Dog & Hamburger meal along with potato salad, baked beans & watermelon. A variety of pies will be served for dessert. Pier 101 will perform live music and there will be a fun
