A. PAST PROGRAM REPORT

- i. Mardi Gras- Friday, February 13, 5:00-7:00pm- A lively crowd of 130 partygoers gathered to celebrate Mardi Gras in true festive style, decked out in green, gold, and purple beads, feathered and sequined masks, and glittering costumes. The room sparkled with color and excitement as everyone embraced the spirit of the season. Guests indulged in delicious Cajun cuisine, topped off with a decadent banana bread pudding with a praline topping (made by Goebel Chef, Eric) and truly enjoyed by all. There was an incredible live performance by JD & Friends, whose upbeat music kept the dance floor packed. Seniors danced the night away, filling the celebration with energy, laughter, and unforgettable memories.
