The Long Run - Experience the Eagles

Headline Sponsor: City of Thousand Oaks

Since their debut in 2000, The Long Run - Experience the Eagles, has earned its place among the top-drawing tribute acts in North America and is widely regarded as the finest Eagles tribute show working today. Drawing one of the largest crowds in CRPD's Summer Concerts' history when they performed in 2013, Los Angeles-based The Long Run are returning this year to perform some of the most popular songs in all of classic rock. Chart-topping hits on the show list include "Take It Easy," "Lyin' Eyes," "Desperado," "Hotel California," "Peaceful Easy Feeling," and "Take It To The Limit."

PLUS: CRPD Flies to New Heights...again! This Memorial Day Celebration again features five vintage T-34 Navy planes conducting three flyovers at the beginning of the concert. Pilots include Michael Maloco, Marc Russell, Michael Hohls, Jon Russell, and Ronny Alldredge; coordination provided by Jerry Burkhardt.

Gold Rush Country

Headline Sponsor: Atmosphere Church

Southern California's premier high-energy, contemporary country band, Gold Rush Country combines the showmanship sensibilities of a classic rock act with the heart and soul of today's top 40 country hits. The band has appeared in concert with Grammy Award-winners Little Big Town and Kacey Musgraves, Kixx Brooks (Brooks & Dunn), Eddie Money, and Justin Moore. With female and male lead vocals, a driving rhythm section, seamless vocal harmonies, and virtuoso instrumentalists, Gold Rush Country gets people's feet tapping & two-stepping! Featuring both country favorites and patriotic tunes, the concert includes Florida Georgia Line's "Cruise," Jason Aldean's "Just Getting' Started," Carrie Underwood's "Two Black Cadillacs," Little Big Town's "Pontoon," and Billy Currington's "That's How Country Boys Roll," among others. PLUS: The show begins with the singing of the "Star Spangled Banner" and concludes with the traditional Conejo Stars & Stripes Parade march through the park. Patriotic-themed crafts are available for kids!
