The season of festivities is quickly approaching! We are fortunate to live in a country which observes so many different cultures and family traditions. For many of us, these activities consist of large family gatherings or going out in our community to join in the merriment with others, such as Halloween. This year, as we approach these festive months, we may all have to make changes to the way we observe our many holiday traditions and ceremonies, as well as rework family get-togethers. This makes me think of a quote by Stephen Hawking: "Intelligence is the ability to adapt to change." I know that—from young to old—our community is incredibly intelligent because I have witnessed so much adaptability in our residents, from the way we shop, learn, and recreate, and stay in touch with friends and family. I have also seen annual events change and adapt to meet the current county and state guidelines, including our Labor Day Concert in Your Car at The Oaks, unique online fundraisers, and dining outside. I also like this quote from Dr. Seuss: "Today was good. Today was fun. Tomorrow is another one."

So, as we start this festive season of celebration, I hope you make it a great day, have fun, be adaptable and creative, and enjoy life in the Conejo Valley!

Wishing you a wonderful holiday season,

Administrator, Recreation & Community Services

Recreation and parks were and still are important elements to the lives of the residents of the Conejo Valley. In November 1962, voters created the CRPD with more than 80% vote in favor of the District's formation as a Special District – a form of local government approved by the local community to meet this specific need.

More than 50 years later, with the help of involved and caring citizens, dedicated and generous staff and volunteers, as well as government agencies, property owners, businesses, and non-profit organizations working together, the CRPD has grown considerably with robust year-round recreation programming and more than 1,000 acres of parkland.

For more information about the history of CRPD and for a complete list of historical landmarks in the Conejo Valley, visit www.crpd.org/history.

Stagecoach Inn

51 South Ventu Park Road, Newbury Park
www.stagecoachinnmuseum.com

The Stagecoach Inn is owned by the Conejo Recreation and Park District and is operated through a partnership with the Conejo Valley Historical Society. The original structure was built in 1876 but was destroyed by fire in the early 1970s. The Inn, also known as the Grand Union Hotel, is a Monterey-style structure of northern California redwood with a wrap-around porch and balcony. The original structure served as a school, post office, steak house, church, gift shop, and movie set. Situated on four acres containing a 200-year-old sycamore tree (also an historical landmark), the site has recreations of a carriage house, 3-room pioneer house, blacksmith shop, working windmill, Timber School, Spanish adobe, outdoor beehive oven, and Chumash Indian bulrush hut. Due to freeway construction, the Stagecoach Inn was moved to its current location in 1965. Its original location was closer to Route 101 Freeway where a historical marker is placed.

Oakbrook Regional Park Archaeological Area

3290 Lang Ranch Parkway, Thousand Oaks
www.chumashmuseum.org

The 428-acre park contains 11 archaeological sites within a few yards of each other along the streambed of a narrow oak-wooded canyon, with bedrock mortars and shelters containing Chumash pictographs. In 2003, the County of Ventura transferred the park to Conejo Recreation and Park District. A small interpretive museum, a Chumash village reproduction, and hiking trails—all of which are open to the public—are operated in partnership with the Oakbrook Chumash Indian Corporation.

Crowley House

2522 Pleasant Way, Thousand Oaks • 805-381-2739

This house is currently owned by Conejo Recreation and Park District and is used for various District programs. It was built in 1910 for newlyweds Frank and Mae Casey Crowley on the Newbury Ranch. The house earned the nickname "Mother of Thousand Oaks" because in the early 1920s, it served as a real estate office for the first housing development in the Conejo Valley. Carloads of prospective buyers were brought from downtown Los Angeles, shown lots among huge oak trees and given dinner in the Crowley House dining room before making the return trip. Later, Louis and Kathleen Goebel owned the house. The 2-story white frame, 5-bedroom house still has its hardwood floors, mahogany beams and volcanic rock fireplace. Shown by appointment only.

McCrea Ranch

North Moorpark Road, Thousand Oaks • 805-495-2163

The rustic 220-acre ranch, located at the bottom of the Norwegian Grade, was owned by movie stars from Hollywood's Golden Age, legendary actor Joel McCrea and his wife of 57 years, actress Frances Dee. They lived a simple lifestyle, farming the land and raising cattle. Joel and Frances also raised their three sons here—Jody, David, and Peter. The working portion of the ranch is located near Moorpark Road and includes barns, shop, milk house, corrals, and bunkhouse. A private road runs east to the end of a small valley where the main residence is located.

The McCreas donated their ranch to Conejo Recreation and Park District, effective in 2004. The McCrea Ranch Visitor Center was completed in 2011. In partnership with the McCrea Ranch Foundation (see their website at www.mccreeranchfoundation.org), the center provides a variety of interpretive, educational, and cultural programs for the community while preserving the unique history of this property for generations to come. Public access to the McCrea Ranch Visitor Center is through scheduled programs with the Conejo Recreation and Park District.

VOLUNTEER RECOGNITION

TIM HAGEL

It is coming up on a year since Tim Hagel retired as the Chief of Police for the Thousand Oaks Police Department, but he hasn't let retirement slow him down. Tim has devoted his time and energy into supporting the underserved families of Thousand Oaks and Newbury Park through the Safe Passage Youth Foundation. When COVID hit, it affected these families the hardest. Tim—and his volunteers Tony Hoffman, Greg Hoffman, Janet Baird, Nan Young, Andrea McClellan, Julian Espinoza, Karen Henige, and Rene McDonough—volunteer Monday through Saturday every week and have distributed more than 11,000 pounds of produce, tutored hundreds of children, supplied art projects, school supplies, internet access, face masks, lunches, and more.

WITH LOVE FROM GRANDMA

Grandma Jeri has been showering our participants of Project Safe Passage with love for years! Created by TOPD and CRPD, the program provides tutoring, mentoring, and community support to our families. Grandma Jeri spends countless hours identifying what our families need, seeking out resources, and hand packaging everything herself, in addition to celebrating the kid's milestone accomplishments like graduations. The kids truly appreciate having a community member care about them as much as Grandma Jeri does!

THE MOODIE FAMILY

As a plant spreads its seeds across the land, the Moodie Family spreads compassion far beyond where they are planted. Laurie, Will and their daughter, Heidi, have been involved with the Therapeutic Recreation Unit program for 30 years! Laurie set a high bar of expectations for her family to fulfill. One of those expectations was to provide meaningful ways to support the Therapeutic Recreation Unit. Laurie was a long time Therapeutic Advisory Council board member, who created, promoted fundraisers and was always there to provide program ideas. Her husband, Will, supports the Unit by dedicating his time every Saturday to coach Special Olympics Bocce Ball and Bowling. Not only does he volunteer in weekly programs, but constantly helps other families and adult patrons. His kindness is endless. Thank you Moodie Family for your continuous support. We greatly appreciate you.

ADA GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

CRPD has developed an internal grievance procedure for prompt and equitable resolution of complaints alleging any action prohibited by the United States Department of Justice regulations implementing Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA).

Complaints should be addressed in writing to ADA Compliance Officer, Conejo Recreation and Park District, 403 W. Hillcrest Drive, Thousand Oaks, CA 91360 or by email at ADAcompliance@crpd.org

- A complaint should contain the name and address of the person filing it, and briefly describe the alleged violation of the regulations.
- Complaint should be filed within 30 days of the alleged violation.
- CRPD will conduct an investigation and notify the complainant of its findings within 30 days from receiving the written complaint.

Use of this grievance procedure is not a prerequisite to the pursuit of other remedies. CRPD strives to have all participants enjoy their experience in our programs and works to handle all concerns in a timely and fair manner.
