

Conejo Recreation & Park District

Code of Conduct

Conejo Recreation & Park District (ConejoRPD) is committed to providing fun and healthy, social, educational, and recreational opportunities in a safe and welcoming environment suitable for all ages.

For the Safety and Well-Being of All:

All persons using ConejoRPD facilities, programs, or grounds must behave responsibly and respect the rights and dignity of others. The actions listed below—which are not intended to be an all-inclusive list of behaviors—help to ensure the quality of programs and public safety. All program participants, parents, spectators, employees, and volunteers must abide by this Code of Conduct:

- Respect the personal safety and property of others
- Properly use and do not misuse or intentionally damage the facility and equipment
- Use language and gestures suitable for a family-friendly environment
- Refrain from bullying: threatening, intimidating, or aggressive verbal or physical behavior toward others
- Observe program rules and regulations at all times

Failure to follow the code of conduct may result in consequences which could include:

- Notifying a parent or guardian, if violation involves a minor
- Requiring the participant to be picked up or removed immediately
- Suspension from program or facilities (determined by management)
- Immediate removal from programs, facilities, and grounds

I ACKNOWLEDGE THAT I HAVE REVIEWED AND AGREE TO ABIDE BY THE POLICIES AND CONDITIONS OF CONEJO RECREATION & PARK DISTRICT'S "CODE OF CONDUCT" OUTLINED ABOVE.
